

Welcome to the Jersey Shore!

Every summer, college students flock to the Jersey Shore for the opportunity to work with successful businesses that are near our spectacular shoreline. Monmouth University provides safe, clean, and affordable housing accommodations for summer interns.

Intern Housing is available on campus for undergraduate students from May 31 until August 8, 2009; and is available off campus for graduate students from May 31 until August 15, 2009. You do not need to be a registered MU student to enroll.

Monmouth University, located in West Long Branch, NJ, is sprawled across a magnificent, historic campus. The University is a centralized New Jersey location and is within walking distance to the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean.

Housing Accommodations for Summer 2009 are located in the Garden Apartments, Great Lawn Apartments, Residential Hall and an off-campus oceanfront apartment complex. Apartments provide housing with full bathroom in one-to-four bedroom units with a full kitchen, dining/living room and laundry facilities. Residential Halls offer suite-style housing where each suite houses four to six tenants in single-occupancy bedrooms. The suites are separated by male or female in a co-ed building.

Amenities Available for Tenants:

- Fitness Center – The MU Fitness Center is available at no charge to guests who are over age 18. The Fitness Center includes cardiovascular equipment, Olympic-size pool, weight room and tennis courts. Hours may vary.
- Library Services – The resource/reference materials are available to tenants, although tenants will not be able to check-out items.
- Mail Service – All mail should be sent to the Office of Conference Services who will deliver the mail to your summer residence.
- Food Service Option – Summer tenants may elect to purchase a meal plan OR a declining balance card directly from ARAMARK, the food service provider of MU.
