

Fameco is one of the pre-eminent brokerage firms in the NJ/PA/DE area specializing in retail real estate and the shopping center industry. Due to the rapid growth of our Woodbridge, NJ office we are looking to expand our Woodbridge team by adding a talented sales assistant to work with our landlord leasing representatives in marketing and leasing space in shopping centers.

This is a tremendous entry level opportunity for an individual looking to advance their commercial real estate career. Following a salaried training period of approximately 1 year, this position could evolve into a traditional commissioned salesperson role.

Responsibilities include:

- Canvassing prospective tenants
- Driving and learning retail markets
- Researching retailers, landlords, and retail real estate
- Using tax mapping and other tools to identify owners of real estate
- Populating and maintaining company database
- Preparing market overviews

Successful candidates will have:

- An interest in retail real estate
- Ability to take direction and to work independently
- Strong communication and organizational skills
- Good writing skills
- Initiative
- NJ Real Estate license preferred, but not required

Please send cover letter, resume and salary requirements to jobs_leasing@famecoretail.com.