Mission Statement

The Business Council consists of established business professionals with a common interest in Monmouth University and the Leon Hess Business School. These business professionals volunteer their time, talents and resources towards supporting the success of students and transition into careers of their choice.

The purpose of the Business Council is to provide support and advice to the Dean of the Leon Hess Business School on matters relating to academic programs, student development, societal impact and strategic planning. The Business Council is chartered with five primary functions:

1. Providing the University with a source of practical business experience and expertise across diverse industries.
2. Advising on curriculum and learning approaches that best prepare students with the knowledge and skills desired in the marketplace.
3. Providing mentoring, training, experiential learning opportunities, internships and hiring opportunities.
4. Providing financial support for continuous faculty development and supporting fund raising efforts for Leon Hess Business School.
5. Developing the availability and use of the Leon Hess Business School as an educational and advisory resource to the business community.
