ACADEMIC REGALIA

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all “Doctors, Licentiates, and Bachelors” of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges prescribed the wearing of a long gown. In the 16th and 17th centuries in Europe, the wearing of a robe often signified a degree candidate’s political or religious affiliation; in the northern universities and those of the British Isles, the robes signified that tuition and boarding fees of the wearer had been paid and also entitled them to special immunities in civil law, as well as providing them warmth at lectures and chapel.

When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel, a conference held at Columbia University in 1895, made up of representatives from various institutions, drew up a “By-Law, Regulation, or Statute” for the establishment of a suitable code of academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. This code, with modifications made in 1959 by the Committee on Academic Costumes and Ceremonies of the American Council on Education, is still in force; the costumes and colors, trimmings, and patterns you will see are traditional, and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor’s gown, designed to be worn closed, has pointed sleeves; the master’s gown, which may be worn open or closed, has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist that hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, and the front part has the arc cut away. The doctoral gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor’s and master’s gowns are untrimmed. Doctoral gowns are faced with black velvet, with three bars across the sleeves; the color of the velvet may also be that which is distinctive to the degree, agreeing with that of the edging of the hood. In the 1960s, many American land-grant universities adopted the British and the Scottish tradition of using the official school color(s) for the robes of their doctoral recipients—for instance, Yale: sky blue; Harvard: crimson; University of Pennsylvania: scarlet and blue; Columbia: slate gray; Rutgers: scarlet and black.

The colors you will see in the hoods of our faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken:

Apricot: Nursing	Orange: Engineering
Brown: Fine Arts	Pink: Music
Citron: Social Work	Purple: Law
Crimson: Journalism	Sage Green: Physical Education
Dark Blue: Philosophy	Salmon Pink: Public Health
Golden Yellow: Science	Scarlet: Theology
Green: Medicine	Yellow-Brown: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
Lemon-Yellow: Library Science	White: Arts, Letters, Humanities
Light Blue: Education

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees—bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral—are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet or the color appropriate for the degree. You will see in our procession many hoods edged with dark blue, representing doctor of philosophy.

Mortarboards are the approved headgear. The tassel, worn on the left side of the cap, may be gold if the holder has a doctoral degree.

HONORARY DEGREE

JACK FORD

Doctor of Humanities, honoris causa

Presented by Trustee Jeana M. Piscatelli '01, '02M

Emmy and Peabody Award-winning journalist, educator, documentary producer, trial attorney, and author, Jack Ford has had a unique and remarkably successful career. Raised by a single parent, his journey has taken him from a small town in New Jersey to Yale University, the Fordham University School of Law, courtrooms and classrooms throughout the country, and ultimately to the upper echelons of television journalism.

Currently a host of “MetroFocus” on PBS (WNET-New York) and most recently a CBS News correspondent for “60 Minutes Sports,” Ford was also the co-founder and chief anchor of the digital network American Ed TV.

Ford began his television news career in 1984 as a legal analyst with WCBS-TV in New York. In 1994, he joined NBC News as chief legal correspondent, reporting on major legal stories for “NBC Nightly News,” “The Today Show,” and “Dateline.” Ford joined ABC News in 1999 as an anchor/correspondent for “20/20,” “Good Morning America,” and “World News Tonight.” In 2002, he anchored the ESPN show, “The Sports Reporters II,” and from 2009-2014, he served as a CBS News legal analyst. He has also provided college football game analysis for ESPN, the Yes Network, and the American Sports Network, and has served as a consultant to the NCAA.

Prior to embarking on his journalism career, Ford was a prosecutor in New Jersey before entering private practice. He became a prominent trial attorney, handling high-profile cases such as the Northeast’s first death penalty trial, one of the nation’s first corporate homicide trials, and the Wall Street insider trading scandal of the late 1980s. During his legal career, he served as an adjunct professor at the Fordham University School of Law. He has been a visiting lecturer at Yale University since 2007, and has also taught at New York University, Monmouth University, and the University of Virginia.

Ford’s television journalism work has been recognized with three Emmy Awards, a George Foster Peabody Award, three National Cable Television Awards, an MCCJ National Headliner Award, and the March of Dimes FDR Award. In 1997, he received an NCAA Silver Anniversary Award, which is presented to former outstanding college athletes who have achieved distinction in their professional lives. In 1998, Ford was honored with a “National Father of the Year Award,” and in 2009 he was a recipient of Yale University’s highest athletic honor, the “George H.W. Bush Lifetime of Leadership Award.” And in a somewhat unusual accolade, he was named People Magazine’s “Sexiest News Anchor” in 1999.

Ford has been awarded six honorary degrees and has served as spokesperson, host and/or board member for several charitable causes and organizations, including the Cancer Support Community, the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation (North Jersey chapter), the Alzheimer’s Association, Special Olympics New Jersey, the V Foundation for Cancer Research, the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (Vice-Chair), the Ivy Football Association, the NCAA Honors Committee, the NCAA Division I Committee on Infractions, Hackensack Meridian Health System, Monmouth University, and Yale University.

Ford resides in Spring Lake, New Jersey, with his wife, Dorothy. They have two children, Dr. Ashley Ford Haggerty and Colin Ford.

A Message to the Graduates from Tina R. Paone

Dear Members of the Graduating Class of 2022,

Congratulations! Today is a day for celebration! Receiving a degree is an enormous accomplishment. Breathe in deep, exhale, and bask in the pride you feel for yourself today. You did it! And although you undoubtedly faced challenges throughout your journey, you put in the work that brought you here today. No matter what path you choose from here, when it comes to your career, remember to follow your dreams. If you end up doing what you love, and love what you do, you will find peace and happiness in your work. That is not to say that things will be easy, but it will make your commitment towards your work meaningful and valuable for you.

As you leave Monmouth University, I offer you this advice: Recognize who you are, where you come from, where you have been, and where you want to go. Acknowledge your privileges that have provided you opportunities on the road of life. Be grateful and thankful to those individuals in your life that have helped you along the way. In turn, pay it forward by offering to support others through their own journeys throughout your life. And when you see injustice in this world, advocate for change. Do not be afraid to speak up and change the world!

I wish you all peace, love, and happiness in the years to come! Congratulations!
