

A Fact

The housewives of America insist upon these soups, because everywhere they are acknowledged as the highest standard for purity, goodness and cleanliness.

Campbell's SOUPS

are what they are because:—

We could not afford, from your standpoint or from ours, to produce anything but the best.

The farmers supply us with vegetables, the very pick of their crops, and in the stock the same high-grade character is insisted upon.

Coupled with this excellence is the careful, skilled and conscientious method which marks every detail of the making.

For ten cents, the price of a can, you may provide enough for the average family.

"Just add a can of hot water and serve"
