NOTE

ginning it was a
, then someone
t out the crown
ts place a soft
ome of white net.
ey trailed with
bits of fuzzy
ve, blue, maize
eta, mauve and
tch over and
im edge.

Yes, it is slip-
cloth in radio
rently woven
d fabric in an
n. Lightly,
endurance,
and in ustable
d with satin
inged ends
sides.

Partner—or Housekeeper?

On the threshold of the new home the wise bride resolves never to let her housewifely duties rob her of her husband's companionship

UER... But now-a-days a bride can choose for herself constantly being invented for her—the conveniences and little appliances that make life easier and more worth living! Every household task is simplified to a degree that would make our great-grandmothers green with envy!

Take the preparation of the evening meal, for instance. How easily, how quickly, it can be done now, compared with the old days!

Even the meat dish—as witnessed by those shown on this page—no longer presents any difficulties! It is now possible to prepare the most delectable dishes in practically no time at all. Because with Libby's Packaged Meats you are not "starting from scratch." They come to you with all the tiresome work of cooking done.

Vienna Sausage with baked beans—
a hearty meal

Heat Libby's Vienna Sausage and serve with hot baked beans and tomato sauce. Here's a combination you will want often when you have tried it once!

The most alert housewives in America are now depending on these almost-ready-to-serve meats. They have learned that there are no finer meats obtainable than Libby's Packaged Meats—Corned Beef, Dried Beef, Vienna Sausage, Veal Loaf and a long list of other delicacies.

They are packaged in Chicago—meat center of the world—where the choicest meats are available to the Libby kitchens. Only cuts from fresh, Government inspected meats are used.

They come to you in air-tight containers, which,

LHJ 6/20 p57