Do your folks ever say "It's too hot to eat?" Well . . . here's how to bring on a cool spell. First, serve frosty glasses of your favorite fruit drink. Follow with a very gay, very appetizing and satisfying ribbon sandwich loaf. Pair each delicious slice with a big, rosy-ripe tomato filled with crisp garden vegetables. Then comes dessert, luscious peaches and grapes with a tasty gelatin mold. U-m-m-m! And the price is right, too . . . only 51¢ to 54¢ a portion.

Planning perfect, low-cost meals like this is as easy as pie. It just takes a little thought and regular shopping at your A&P Super Market. Prices are always attractive, because A&P's "straight-line" marketing method . . . from source, to store, to you . . . reduces in-between expenses . . . results in savings. That's why you can depend on A&P for splendid values. Come in today and see for yourself!
