

ained many Woolwich secrets—details a new 14-inch naval gun, of a fuse new type of bomb, of an anti-tank a bomb for attacking submarines, pressure-bar apparatus for testing motors. Glading had sold these secrets to Miss X went to work on his case.
 Glading by joining an organiza-ch he belonged. Gradually she herself to show interest in the able plotter. Finally Glading became ential and urged her to help him in profitable espionage activities. Being to join the enemy is about the triumph a professional counter-er expects to achieve.
 X—reporting daily to her chief by one—worked with Glading for months, helping him photograph documents and drawings, which his erates briefly borrowed from the hich files. On March 14, 1938, as a of the strong counterespionage case X had brought into court, Glading in prison for six years, Williams and back for four and three years, resulting in the tensions and dangers of wartime X, as an ace of spy hunters, working day and night against espionage adversaries of England. She hadly one of those now trying to break the spy, or ring of spies, that formerly German Naval Intelligence the had plans of the Scapa Flow de-mine barrage. On last October

WITH A BOX OF YOUR
 READY-MIX IN MY KITCHEN, IT'S LIKE HAVING YOU
 THERE IN PERSON,
 AUNT JEMIMA!

IF AUNT JEMIMA HERSELF VISITED YOUR KITCHEN she couldn't make better pancakes than you can make with her magic Ready-Mix. For her famous recipe is already mixed for you in every box. Easy as 1-2-3 to fix, and no chance of failure.

YOU SEE, MY SECRET
 RECIPE IS ALREADY
 MIXED FO' YOU IN DIS
 BOX, SO WHEN YO' POPS
 'EM ON DE GRIDDLE
 IT'S LIKE ME DOIN'
 IT MYSELF!

YES—ALL I HAVE TO DO IS ADD WATER OR MILK.
 IN A JIFFY THOSE LIGHT
 TENDER AUNT JEMIMA'S ARE READY!

FROM 'WAY DOWN SOUTH, according to legend, comes Aunt Jemima's secret recipe for the world's most famous Pancakes and Buckwheats.
 And you can serve these mouth-watering pancakes today just as she did on the old plantation, with that "Down South" savor.

★ ★ ★
OTHER FOREVER
 BY SARAH-
ELIZABETH RODGER

...y of a love killed by
 ...and reborn in poverty
 IN APRIL
 HOUSEKEEPING

★ ★ ★
 Lieutenant Captain Günther his U-boat right into the and torpedoed H.M.S. exploit was obviously dea master stroke of espio-agents have proved scoring again and again and stratagems. In the a woman agent, who communicated at a day to passers-by who
 and confederates.
 an unbeatable code.
 medium-size glass bowls.
 tropical fish of dif-
 kinds. Her code messages the number, kind, or each bowl, the arrange-on two tables near ad-
 the spaces between the stance from the edges most acutely of all, by
 of water in the
 a mother and daugh-
 signaled to Ger-
 out bright-colored
 a trick might have
 y; but they forgot in washing. One benchwoman at-
 began to won-
 by themselves

AUNT JEMIMA'S!
 HURRAY FOR MOM!

YOUR MOTHER
 KNOWS HOW TO MAKE A HIT
 WITH US!

I BRING JOY TO
 YOUR FAMILY—
 COMPLIMENTS
 TO YOU...

YOUR FAMILY WILL SING YOUR PRAISE every time you serve delicious, nourishing Aunt Jemima's. Enjoy them two or three times a week—for breakfast, luncheon and supper. Ask your friendly grocer today for both kinds of Aunt Jemima's magic Ready-Mix—the red box for Pancakes, the yellow box for Buckwheats.

WAFFLES
 TOO!