AS YOU KNOW, every cool meal should have a warm heart. One hot dish, the food experts tell us, makes that cool meal more appetizing and easier to digest. That's why... if you serve lots of salads (and most people do) you're going to lean on soup as that one hot dish around which you plan quick easy meals. The family likes it. There are many delicious kinds to choose from. Besides, there's no hour or two spent in a hot kitchen. Soup is ready in a jiffy... four minutes from your soup shelf to table.

You don't have to be a food expert to select a soup to serve with salads. Almost every soup... goes with almost every salad... but among my favorite combinations are:

Vegetable Beef Soup

A square meal soup, thick with vegetables and beef, is excellent with these salads:

- Fresh Summer Fruit
- Shrimp-Stuffed Tomato
- Pear and Cream Cheese
- Asparagus and Pimiento
- Fruit Gelatin Mold
- Deviled Eggs
- Lettuce Wedges with Roquefort
- Pepper Rings—Cottage Cheese

Tomato Soup

Everybody loves that luscious purée of big, juicy tomatoes. A wonderful soup with such salads as:

- Almond-Chicken
- Tuna and Sliced Egg
- Ham and Potato
- Pineapple—Cottage Cheese
- Olive-Cheese Gelatin
- Crabmeat and Celery
- Mixed Cooked Vegetable
- Peanut Sprinkled Banana

Chicken Gumbo Soup

That romantic old Creole soup (chicken-vegetable) is at home with salads like:

- Tossed Green
- Waldorf
- Tart Tomato Aspic
- Grapefruit and Orange
- Cole Slaw with Walnuts
- Vinegared Cucumber-Onion
- Raisin and Shredded Carrot
- Pineapple-Banana
