

New soups from two soups

Soup Mates

Hundreds of women write us about Soup Mates. They tell us what delicious new soups they make by adding one Campbell's Soup to another Campbell's Soup and how much their families enjoy these soup-bowl surprises.

You'll like them, too. Try the three exciting flavor combinations on this page. One thick and hearty. Two creamy-smooth. All so delightful you'll want to have them often — and then go ahead and create a lot more Soup Mates of your very own.

Write us which ones you like best — why don't you?

These three Soup Mates start with Cream of Mushroom Soup!

Make this new soup — It's Mushroom-Chicken — a smooth, creamy soup! Start with one can of Cream of Mushroom Soup, add one can of Cream of Chicken, blend with 1½ cans of water. Have a new and happy lunch.

Make this new soup — It's Mushroom-Scotch Broth — tender chunks of mutton, mushrooms, and vegetables smothered in country cream. Start with one can of Cream of Mushroom Soup, add one can Scotch Broth, combine with 1½ cans of milk.

Make this new soup — It's Mushroom-Tomato — the flavor of ripe, red tomatoes enriched by tender mushrooms in cream! Start with one can of Cream of Mushroom Soup, add one can of Tomato, blend with 1½ cans of milk.

Good cooks cook with Campbell's Soup

Mm! Mm! Good!