

Family supper

You'll enjoy setting out this inviting hot weather supper quite as much as the family will enjoy eating it. You made your pie in the cool of the morning, of course, and your main dish is a hearty prepared soup. So your meal is on in a jiffy.

SOUP

IN SUMMER

BY Anne Marshall

WITH COLD FOODS, SERVE SOUP AS YOUR ONE HOT DISH

Here are two big reasons why soup is a favorite summer dish: First, nutrition experts have proved that every meal needs one hot dish. Second, you and your kitchen both keep cool—it's only four minutes till "Soup's on!"

You can build any cold lunch around soup—whether sandwich, salad or cold cuts. And there are so many different soups to vary your menu. Soup stimulates appetites... it's easy to digest... it brings important nutritive benefits... and the contrast makes cold foods taste better. You'll find it pays to keep a shelf of soups.

WITH HOT FOODS, SERVE JELLIED CONSOMMÉ

Cool, smooth, and delicious Jellied Consommé is a grand beginner when your meal is hot. That clear amber looks so inviting in the cup. And the beef broth and vegetables—strained clear—make it delightfully refreshing. Try it.

It's so easy to fix!

Simply place can of consommé in chiller, or immediately below the freezing compartment of your refrigerator. Any time after 4 hours, remove and serve.

Family lunch

Cups of delicious, golden chicken soup (with rice) will bid the family welcome. And lady, that soup's a real nourisher. Add sandwiches and a beverage, and there you are!
