...to give you a new mood in food!

We hope you'll remember this page the next time you're wondering "What can I serve the family for a change?" For here, indeed, is a change-of-pace meal that gives you an entirely new mood in food.
 Chun King Chicken Chow Mein is a Cantonese meal, the likes of which you'll find only in the best Cantonese restaurants. And you can fix it right at home in less than 15 minutes.
 The exclusive Chun King flavor-guard Divider-Pak® is the secret of its goodness. Chicken, mushrooms and delicately seasoned sauce are cooked and packed separately from the six chow mein vegetables to preserve crispness and flavor. The two cans come taped together; you just combine their contents in a pan or double boiler and heat. Then serve with Chun King Noodles and Soya Sauce.

 Or you could have Beef Chop Sucey or Mushroom Chow Mein. Or Chun King Frozen Foods. Sound like a good idea sometime this week?

Not only that, but I'll start a Monthly Investment Plan

Is the girl you want to marry reluctant to say Yes? Do you need to build character with your wife? She may ask questions — here are the answers:

She: What is this Monthly Investment Plan?

You: It's a pay-as-you-go plan that helps you put money regularly in the stock of some of America's largest corporations — for as little as $40 every three months. After we have money set aside to meet family emergencies we can invest in stock.

She: What can the stock do for our marriage?

You: It can help keep it sweet and jolly because when we own stock we are part-owners of the company and if the company grows our money can grow. And the dividends we receive from profits can increase our income.

She: But will the company always make a profit so it can pay those lovely dividends?

You: It may not. If it doesn't, there usually no dividend. And the price of stocks can go down as well as up.
