

at
at
ne
all
n-
as
ve
m.
n's
a ve.
ley
er-
al-
the
of
on-
it—

re-
ided
igh-
live
of a
st in
ds—
n the

f my
ge. I
itz—
this
white
My
days
lives,
ice.
sville
eeing
t. The
with
nd is
ember
is tree
n an
ature—
t took
study
er just

to the
at win-
Duck,
h Peg
y first
e new
hrilled
mance.
n't an-
As the
er and
nily.
" shot
her. I
Hedvig
a little
every-
and I
There
there;
w now
te any-
me an
y Hed-

v. She
of my

y. B
ctress.
or suc-
ng.
Myron
ke, but
h them
story
6/62
17

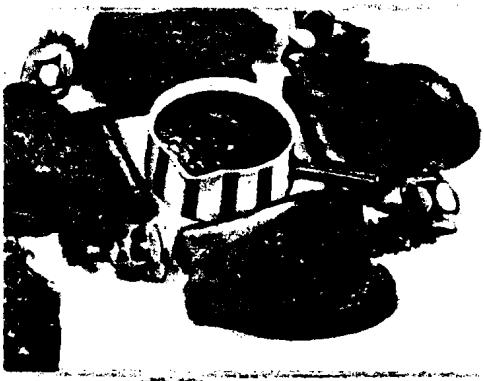

their way by appearing in the company.
Our bags were left at Uncle Paul's house in New Rochelle, where we would be staying for mother." All this had made me feel very nervous, especially the question about the animals. I had no idea what that had to do with acting! I'm sure

ing on the cake was her request for me to play the part of a Dutch lady of sixty-five as a test of

Easy-to-fix Menu Ideas

Steak in Minutes

Sizzle minute steaks and serve them on golden Sunbeam toast. Delicious. Try it.

Golden Rarebit

Only delicious Sunbeam toast points will do for a zesty cheese rarebit like this.

Party Time Hot Dogs

Pop franks on Sunbeam Rolls. Serve with beans, relishes, and spiced, hot cider.

Copyright, Quality Bakers of America Cooperative, Inc., 1960

Miss Sunbeam says, "It's time for Meals on Wheels"

ENJOY SUNBEAM—AMERICA'S FAVORITE BREAD

Now, put real excitement in meals outdoors. This summer serve your picnics and patio suppers with Sunbeam Bread. For America's finest look for Miss Sunbeam and the red oval of quality. Thousands of Americans trust these symbols of better baking. That's why today Sunbeam is the #1 bread in the land.

Quality Guaranteed • Locally Baked • Nationally Advertised

**A symbol of membership in and quality control by Quality Bakers of America Cooperative, Inc.*

