

Are you the kind of girl boys fall in love with at the drop of your false lashes? Is your mailbox overflowing with torrid love letters? Do you turn down at least 3 dates every Saturday night because there aren't enough Saturdays in the week? Say, you're tuned in. You play the dating game to win. And you do. But don't forget, catching his eye is one thing; keeping it's another. Be a little sneaky. Remember, boys love to eat. Do they! And they love Wonder sandwiches. So get Wonder going for you, too. What a subtle, feline way to show you care.

Helps catch boys...!
