

Mom kneads it.

Even if she's never baked bread before, Mom's going to love this. The incredible Bake-a-Round by Corning.

An almost magical tube of Pyrex® brand glass that lets her use frozen dough from the supermarket or dough from scratch. Into the tube, into the oven, and out slides a golden-crust, perfectly-shaped loaf. Every time.

Handsomely packaged, with simple directions and recipes from French to cinnamon nut breads. Under $12 wherever housewares are sold.

Any Mom nice enough to bake bread deserves it.
