

Great American® Soup.

About as close as you can get to homemade without making it yourself.

Certain days are made for homemade soup. You can't get any closer to homemade than Great American® Soup. It's not watery, like condensed soup, or too heavy, like soups that are really stews. Great American Vegetable Beef is made with big chunks of beef and lots of fresh-cut vegetables.

Simmered in a broth that's just right. You can tell by looking at it. There's only one soup that really tastes like homemade. The soup you make yourself. But Great American® Soup comes close. About as close as you can get. Now in new single-bowl size. Heinz
