

This year's winners, left to right: Matt Duran, Jimmy Bricker, Crystal Fields, Kevin Perry, John Giordano, Mike Dulaugh, Jay Guinn and Mike McCune. Backing them left to right: Commissioner of Baseball Bowle Kuhn, Mr. E. C. Schoenleib, Exec. V.P. Burger King Corp., Mr. C. Carson Conrad, Exec. Director, President's Council on Physical Fitness & Sports and Mr. John Davis, Exec. Director, National Recreation and Park Assn.

The Best Darn Champs!

Pitch, Hit and Run 1979 National Finalists! Hundreds of thousands of boys and girls from all over the country competed. And Burger King® wants to congratulate every last one of 'em. Pitch, Hit and Run is the Official Youth Program of Major League Baseball. It's fun! It's exciting! The kind of healthy competition kids love.

Burger King restaurants are darn proud to be part of it. To sponsor this nationwide event. It was a great success, thanks to a great bunch of kids.

Burger King - Reg. U.S. Pat. Off. ©1979 Burger King Corporation

COLOR

M-9064

This advertisement appears in
Baseball World Series Program - 1
(191393)

JWT
Baseball World Series 1979

Box 1 1975-1987