

As close to Mom's as we can make it.

Think back far enough and you'll probably recall that Mom made some mighty good hash. She'd spend hours grinding the meat, dicing the potatoes, adding the spices. ♡ Nobody will ever make hash as good as that. But if you'll heat up a can of Mary Kitchen Roast Beef or Corned Beef Hash, it might just remind you of old times. ♡ People must like it. Because nobody sells as much hash as Mary Kitchen. Not even Mom. Mary Kitchen
