

"Back home in Greenville, Ma boiled-up fresh shucked corn, mixed in plenty of carrots, good, plump beans and chopped onions—folks still remember that dish."

Talk about taste, who could forget such a scrumptious combination of good things. The kind of good things you only got back home. Til now, that is. Because now, Seabrook Farms Vegetables U.S.A. bring home some of the tastiest vegetable combinations ever.

Seabrook's new Vegetables U.S.A. The same garden-fresh corn. The same carrots. The same plump beans. And the same good onions.

But not the same old trouble. Because Vegetables U.S.A. are individually quick frozen. So you pour what you need and store the rest. (You don't have to waste a single pea!) Yet, they taste so fresh, you'll think they were fresh-picked.

Tonight, take your family back to Greenville for dinner. Give 'em a taste of America with Vegetables U.S.A. in five tasty combinations.

Golden Country, Early American, Cosmopolitan, North Country, and Southwestern Style.
