

1978 A

TEST YOUR HUSBAND.

Q. With chicken, I prefer:
(check one)

- Mashed potatoes.
- Stove Top® Stuffing.

We bet he'll choose Stove Top® Stuffing.

Most men do.

In a recent consumer test, over 62% of the husbands polled preferred Stove Top® Stuffing Mix to mashed potatoes with their chicken dinners.

No wonder. Toasty bread crumbs, real chicken flavor and the perfect balance of celery, onion, parsley and herbs make Stove Top irresistible.

We bet your husband will agree.

Joe Prekup says, "Stuffing tastes a lot better than mashed potatoes. There's a lot more flavor to it and it complements the chicken better."

John Jackson says, "Stuffing really accents the taste of chicken. It adds more zest to the meal."

Art Martori says, "Stove Top tastes like stuffing my mother used to make."

INSTEAD OF POTATOES.

©General Foods Corporation 1977. Stove Top is a registered trademark of the General Foods Corporation.

J.W.T. 1978 1725 G Housekeeping 12/78