

We give our vegetables
the meat flavor Sandy loves.

If it were up to Sandy, dinner would be all meat and no vegetables. But Sandy needs the specific vitamins and minerals that a variety of green and yellow vegetables provide every day. That's why we developed Vegetable-Meat Combinations. Sandy's favorite variety (Vegetables and Beef), blends potatoes, carrots and peas with the rich flavor of lean beef. Gerber makes a wide variety of Strained Vegetable-Meat Combinations, each one prepared to combine nutrients with a taste Sandy loves. We've added variety and flavor to Sandy's choice of vegetables because we know that if the vegetables are left behind, Sandy might never catch up.
