

Creative Artists Agency (CAA) 2017 Spring

The CAA Internship Program offers current students and recent graduates the opportunity to gain relevant, hands-on work experience at a leading entertainment, media and sports agency. Interns work alongside seasoned agents and executives to support a variety of projects within their assigned department.

Interns also participate in a regular speaker series, build relationships with leaders from all CAA divisions, and attend workshops to help develop the skills and knowledge necessary for a successful career in the entertainment industry.
