

Location: Teaneck, NJ

Marketing: Lots of research, writing and lots of brainstorming! The Marketing Intern will assist School of Rock's Marketing staff with a number of projects to support the organization's needs. The Marketing intern will identify, research, and collect demographic information on new and future projects; research and review promotional strategies of other organizations and participate in group strategy brain storming sessions and meetings; work collaboratively with School of Rock staff to help develop marketing campaigns, coordinate PR efforts and mailings; any other administrative tasks that may arise. Multiple internship opportunities available.