

Searching for Jobs

The Occupational Information Network (O*NET) is a free online database that contains thousands of occupational definitions to help match job seekers with jobs. You can use this site to help you narrow down a career. O*net provide a wealth of information such as the education level need for the position, day to day tasks, necessary skills, typical job setting and project job growth.

If you already know what job position you are seeking, you can start your job search with the following websites:

- www.apa.org/careers/psyccareers/
- www.monster.com
- www.careerbuilder.com
- www.indeed.com
- www.snagajob.com