

MONMOUTH
UNIVERSITY

PROFESSIONAL
COUNSELING

Virtual Current Topics in Counseling Conference

Day 1, Pre-Conference Ethics Institute: Friday, October 16, 2020

Time: 9am - 3pm (includes lunch break)

Topic: Ethics, Law, & Social Justice: The Intersection of Behaviors and Beliefs presented by Perry C. Francis, EdD, NCC, ACS, LPC, Professor and Counseling Training Clinic Coordinator in the Department of Leadership and Counseling at Eastern Michigan University.

A certificate for 5 CE hours in ethics will be provided.

Day 2, Full-Day Conference: Saturday, October 17, 2020

Time: 8:30am - 4:30pm (includes lunch break)

Keynote Address: Cultural View of Disability: Communicating with People with Disabilities presented by Mona Robinson, PhD, Professor and Immediate Past Chair of the Department of Counseling and Higher Education at Ohio University. Workshops on timely counseling-related topics will follow the keynote.

A certificate for 6 CE hours will be provided (includes hours in multicultural and opioid topics).

Registration Information

Professionals

Friday Only: $100
Saturday Only: $125
Full Conference: $200

Current Students

Conference is free of charge to all current undergraduate and graduate students.

MU Alumni, MU Employees, & Current Field Placement Supervisors

Friday Only: $100
Saturday Only: $100
Full Conference: $175

Registration for the conference is open and available through Friday, October 9th at pcevents.monmouth.edu. Please review the website carefully for important information.

Monmouth University Department of Professional Counseling has been approved by NBCC as an Approved Continuing Education Provider, ACEP No. 4242. Programs that do not qualify for NBCC credit are clearly identified. Monmouth University Department of Professional Counseling is solely responsible for all aspects of the programs.