

The New Jersey Law Against Discrimination (LAD) prohibits discrimination and harassment in pre- and postnatal facilities, including OB/GYN providers, birthing centers, doula and midwife providers, fertility clinics, and more, based on actual or perceived:

- Race or color
- Gender identity or expression
- Pregnancy or breastfeeding
- Religion or creed
- Liability for military service
- Marital or domestic partnership or civil union status
- Disability
- National origin, nationality, or ancestry
- Sex
- Sexual orientation

The law applies in all aspects of care and means you cannot be treated differently, harassed, or:

- (1) Denied services, treatment, or care-related items free of cost to other patients;
- (2) Ignored when you report symptoms or conditions; or
- (3) Tested more than necessary or without consent

Based upon membership in a protected class.

Remedies may include money damages, an order to stop discrimination or harassment, adoption of new policies and procedures, attorney's fees, and more.
