

AFRICAN DIASPORA STUDIES MINOR PROGRAM

BLACK HISTORY MONTH POSTER ART CONTEST

This art competition is sponsored by the African Diaspora Studies Program, Department of History and Anthropology, and the Black Student Union with support from the Intercultural Center at Monmouth University. There will be three prizes: first ($200), second ($75), and third ($25). All student participants will have their work displayed during Black history month at the Intercultural Center during Black History Month.

Criteria for submission:

- Create an original poster that is defined by themes that represent African Diaspora history, society, and culture.
- Must be a currently enrolled Monmouth University student to participate.
- Submit one poster design as a digital file (PDF, JPG, PNG 11 x 17 1650 pixels x 2550 pixels) with the submission form to Dr. Hettie V. Williams, Director of ADS at hwilliam@monmouth.edu by or before the stated due date.
- Due no later than February 1, 2026.

For more information and complete contest rules and submission guidelines please contact Dr. Williams at this same e-mail.