

Resources for Writers

The Resources for Writers site is part of the Writing Center Web site and provides supplemental resources for all students on a variety of writing issues and strategies. Printable skills pages on grammar and punctuation rules are especially helpful to ESL and Language Minority writers. In addition, pages are available on different types of writing, research and documentation, and effective reading strategies. To access this site, choose "Resources for Writers" from the menu on the left, or click on the following link:

Resources for Writers

Additional Online Resources

In addition to our own online resources, the following Web sites contain supplemental material, tutorials and exercises that are effective in assisting ESL or Language Minority writers. Click on any of the following links to access a specific page:

- <http://www.manythings.org>
- <http://www.esl-lab.com>
- <http://freerice.com>
- <http://www.cdlponline.org>
- <http://www.typing-lessons.org>