Funding for this conference has been provided by the New Jersey Education Association.

When registering online, please select one topic for Breakout Session 1 and select one topic for Breakout Session 2.

Learning To Teach
John E. Henning, Ph.D., Dean, Monmouth University School of Education

Why Teach Special Education
Mary Haspel, MA., BCBA, Instructor, Monmouth University, Department of Special Education

Stick Kid Goes to Preschool
Ruth K. Morris, Ed.D., Lecturer, Monmouth University, Curriculum and Instruction Department, Early Childhood Education

#Rockin’ Literacy
Adrienne Hansen, M.Ed., Adjunct, Monmouth University and Reading Specialist, Spotswood School District

Becoming a Teacher and a Career in Education!
Raymond J. Boccuzzi, E.D.D., Superintendent, Principal, CSA, Spring Lake NJ School District

Putting the Social Back in Social Studies
Jeanne Del Colle, M.A.L.S., Instructional Development and Strategic Partnerships Specialist, Stockton University, 2012 NJ State Teacher of the Year

Re-Thinking the Idea of Smart: Multiple Intelligences in the Classroom
Joan Rudman, Ed.D., Member of New Jersey Association for Gifted Children (NJAGC)

Experiences of College Students
Panel of Monmouth Education Students

Extreme Technology Meets the Elementary Student
Wendy Whittle, M.A.T., STEM and Gifted & Talented Teacher, Little Silver Point Road School

50 Million Strong by 2029
Staci Drewson, Ph.D., Assistant Professor, Monmouth University, Health and Physical Education

The NJFEA Conference is being held at Monmouth University Rebecca Stafford Student Center Anacon Hall 400 Cedar Avenue West Long Branch, NJ 07764

Wednesday May 31, 2017 9:00AM – 2:30PM

Please direct inquiries to: Mr. Larry Fieber Executive Director Center for Future Educators The College of New Jersey 609-771-2464 fieber@tcnj.edu

This conference is planned for approximately 250 future teachers in grades 9-12. Registration will be on a first-come, first serve basis. Students must be registered and accompanied by a high school NJFEA adviser or faculty member.

There is no charge for attending this conference. Complimentary lunch will be provided. Dress is smart casual.

Each high school is invited to bring approximately 15-20 students who are interested in becoming teachers. Registration must be completed by an NJFEA adviser or faculty member. Students may not register themselves.