

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY Spring Literacy Clinic

Do you know a student in grades K-8 with instructional needs in Language Arts?

Monmouth University is looking for students in grades K-8 who would benefit from targeted reading instruction based on teacher recommendations.

The Monmouth University Spring literacy clinic is a 10 week program where students are tutored in a one on one setting by Graduate students.

The clinic will be held once a week on Thursdays from 4:30-6pm. at the Monmouth University Graduate center and parents will be responsible for transportation.

The cost is $100 per child for the entirety of the clinic. The clinic begins February 7th and ends April 18th. Applicants will be chosen by lottery.
