Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing

The goal of this report is to share the available state data on novice teachers that this Educator Preparation Provider (EPP) recommended for certification. To create the report, the New Jersey Department of Education (NJDOE) has synthesized data from multiple sources. A list of these sources is available at the end of this report. Unless otherwise indicated, the data used in this report represents a one year cohort of teachers who earned a Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing (CEAS) in the 2021-2022 school year who may have been employed in the 2023-2024 school year in a New Jersey public school. For additional details see further explanation in the glossary on the last page.

Provider Profile

Information that applies to all teacher preparation programs at the institution such as mission and location.

Mission<sup>1a</sup>:

The School of Education's mission is to be a leader in the preparation and professional development of highly competent, reflective teachers, speech-language pathologists, school counselors and administrators. We are committed to social justice initiatives that better all students and other persons from diverse backgrounds in terms of abilities, age, gender, culture, race, ethnicity, family, and socioeconomic status. Our candidates learn the exigencies of their profession by practicing and demonstrating their skills through clinical experiences in a wide range of local school and community settings. Our accredited programs link theory and practice, foster lifelong learning and reflection, and improve the quality of life for students and clients through innovation, research, and scholarship. School of Education graduates have the practical skills, the commitment to service, and the theoretical knowledge necessary to enhance living and learning in academic and professional settings.

<sup>1a</sup> The mission statement was provided to the NJDOE by the institution through the application process to become an approved teacher preparation provider.
