

RESPECTING DIVERSITY THROUGH JOINT SOCIAL ACTION: REFRAMING DISABILITY AS ABILITY

Sunday, April 2nd | 1 pm - 3 pm

Where: Fordham University Gabelli
School of Business

Room G76 A/B | 140 W 62nd St, New York,
NY

Registration Fee: $10
Registration open now! Here

Participants will be encouraged to question the status quo, collaborate in community-driven advocacy, challenge dysfunctional systems, and reframe disability from pathology to strength.

Coffee and snacks will be provided. Please feel free to network after the event.

Hosted By:

Sponsors:

Speakers

Building productive life in society for people with disabilities through interdisciplinary work

Dr. Mary Beth Bruder
Director, Uconn Center for Excellence in Developmental Disabilities Research, Education, and Service

Project Enable Africa

Olusola Samuel Owonikoko
Project Manager, Project Enable Africa
Chief Executive, Stanforte Edge
Obama Foundation Scholar at Columbia University

Intersectionality and the Challenges of Identity Searching

Benedicta Oyedayo Oyewole
Disability and Gender Advocate

Social Perceptions of Disability & Counter-narratives

Rev. Dr. Holly Bonner
Director Spirituality & Civic Engagement at Wagner College

Community Driven Activism & Closing Remarks

Linda Levin, LMSW
Fordham University