I am delighted to invite you to participate in our upcoming Family Weekend scheduled for Sept. 28 – Sept. 30, 2018.

The families of our Monmouth University students are important partners with us as we work to support your student's educational journey. Participation in some of the wonderful activities planned during Family Weekend is a great way to show this support and be a part of the campus.

Events kick off with our Study Abroad Fair and information session on Friday. On Saturday, be sure to join us as Monmouth takes on the Wagner College football team. Saturday evening our Student Activities Board will host Casino Night from 7:30-10:30 p.m. in Wilson Hall and our women's soccer team plays Siena College at 7 p.m. Finally, please join us for brunch on Sunday, Sept. 30, and take a tour of historic Wilson Hall.

Whatever your pleasure, our campus, your student's academic and social home, welcomes you.

I look forward to seeing you at Family Weekend.

M FAMILY WEEKEND

Friday, September 28

Study Abroad Fair Erlanger Gardens, 2 - 6 p.m.

Students and families are invited to learn about MU's Global Education opportunities directly from faculty, staff, study abroad student alumni, and representatives from our partners abroad. More information on all of our programs can be found at monmouth.edu/global-education-office.

Discuss Global Education academics, accommodations, financial aid, safety and health with MU's experts leading Study Abroad, Global Seminars, and Global Experience programs at the Study Abroad Fair.

Study Abroad 101 for Parents Room 104, Wilson Hall 6 - 7 p.m.

Study Abroad has rapidly become an important part of the American college student's experience. This workshop will help parents become more familiar with the ins and outs of study abroad, including its academic components, the financial commitments, and the tremendous transformative impact the experience has upon undergraduate students.

Light dinner will be served. Please RSVP to: geo@monmouth.edu or 732-923-4768 by Sept. 21, 2018

Catapult
Pollak Theatre, 8 p.m.
Tickets: Adults $40, $50; Children $20, $25
Students get FREE tickets to Performing Arts shows and can bring one guest for $5.
For more information: monmouth.edu/MCA
For tickets: monmouth.edu/Catapult

A season 8 finalist on America's Got Talent, Catapult captivates audiences with shadow dancing and the ability of the troupe's dancers to transform their bodies into seemingly impossible images. The Catapult dancers work behind a screen to create dancing shadow silhouettes of shapes from the natural and built world. Be amazed as you watch them transform into a mountain, an elephant, a dragon, even a helicopter! Packed with hundreds of shape transformations, this family friendly show is full of humor, emotion and engaging stories.

Restaurant Gift Card BINGO! Anacon Hall, Student Center 8:30 p.m.

Join the fun and the chance to win gift cards to local restaurants for your student to enjoy! Bingo is free and snacks are provided. Seating is limited.

Monmouth Football vs. Wagner Kessler Stadium, 1 p.m.

Cheer for the Hawks as they tackle Wagner in the 26th season of Monmouth football! Tickets may be purchased at the gate, or online at monmouth.edu/familyweekend/football

Women's Soccer vs. Siena College Hesse Field, 7 p.m.

Support our women's soccer team as they play Siena. The game is free to attend.

Woodrow Wilson Hall, formerly known as the Shadow Lawn mansion, was built in 1929 as the private residence of former F.W. Woolworth Company president Hubert Templeton Parson and his wife Maysie. The building encompasses 130 rooms on three main floors, plus rooftop and lower-level rooms. In 1980, the building was the scene for the filming of Annie, serving as the Park Avenue mansion of the character Daddy Warbucks.

All Weekend: Gallery Exhibition: Vincent DiMattio/50 Pollak, Ice House, and DiMattio Galleries
Professor Vincent DiMattio celebrates 50 years in Monmouth's Department of Art & Design with a retrospective exhibition. He has shown work internationally in Spain, Puerto Rico, and Mexico, as well as at home throughout New Jersey. In 1999, his 30-year MU Retrospective Exhibition, was shown on campus with selections serving as his first New York City retrospective at the Susan Berke

Gallery. In 2005, he received a grant for the completion of over 60 "tube paintings" which were showcased at Brookdale Community College. In addition to being named distinguished professor in 2013, he has been honored with an art scholarship in his name and Monmouth's DiMattio Gallery. Free and open to the public.

Gallery Hours:
Monday - Friday: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.* Saturday & Sunday: 10 a.m. - 4 p.m.
*Pollak Gallery is open until 7 p.m. on weekdays
