Alumni Reunions – Saturday, June 2, 2012 for the Classes of:

The Classes of 1990-1994
6:00 P.M. – Beer/Wine Cash Bar on the Wilson Hall Rooftop (weather permitting)
7:30 P.M. – Dinner Buffet in Wilson Hall

It was the 90s and we entered into the new decade with hope for what the future would bring. The Berlin Wall fell in 1990 uniting East and West Germany. The first web page was published on the World Wide Web. We recall the Monmouth Halloween Cruise in Atlantic Highlands during 1991, as well as the Spring Carnival. In 1992, the first Nicotine patch was introduced to help smokers quit and DNA fingerprinting was invented. Bill Clinton became president. Here at Monmouth, our Hawks faced the NJ Giants in a Lyme Disease Benefit and Jesus Jones played on campus. The World Trade Center was bombed during 1993. Beanie Babies were launched, Intel introduced the Pentium Processor, and students were busy protesting Monmouth’s tuition increase and frequenting the new Blue Hawk Pub. On screen, Beverly Hills 90210 was a popular drama while Seinfeld made us laugh. Monmouth saw its first football game on campus and 1994 brought us the Spring Rage II. We prepared to graduate and begin life beyond the Shadow Lawn campus. While Monmouth took a giant step when it attained university status, it’s the amazing building projects that have changed the face of the campus. However, the campus you so loved is still as breathtaking as it was in your day, and you can rest assured the squirrels still roam and are cared for by a new generation of Monmouth students.

This June 2nd, gather a group of your fellow graduates to reminisce and celebrate your reunion with drinks and dinner in Wilson Hall.
