

MONMOUTH UNIVERSITY

UNDERGRADUATE COMMENCEMENT

WEDNESDAY, MAY TENTH, TWO THOUSAND SEVENTEEN

2017

WEST LONG BRANCH, NEW JERSEY

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION AND REGALIA

The commencement ceremony processional begins with faculty marshals designated by the provost leading the faculty followed by the student marshals who lead the candidates for degree. The platform party follows and consists of members of the president's cabinet, academic school deans, members of the Board of Trustees, senior class president, clergy, faculty council chair, honorary degree recipient and the president.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all "Doctors, Licentiate, and Bachelors" of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the fourteenth century, the statutes of certain colleges prescribed the wearing of a long gown. In the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries in Europe, the wearing of a robe often signified a degree candidate's political or religious affiliation; in the northern universities and those of the British Isles, the robes signified that tuition and boarding fees of the wearer had been paid and also entitled him to special immunities in civil law—as well as providing him warmth at lectures and chapel.

When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel, a conference held at Columbia University in 1895, made up of representatives from various institutions, drew up a "By-Law, Regulation, or Statute" for the establishment of a suitable code of academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. This code, with modifications made in 1959 by the Committee on Academic Costumes and Ceremonies of the American Council on Education, is still in force; the costumes and colors, trimmings, and patterns you will see are traditional, and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor's gown, designed to be worn closed, has pointed sleeves; the master's gown, which may be worn open or closed, has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist that hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut, and the front part has the arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctor's gowns are faced with black velvet, with three bars across the sleeves, or the color of the velvet may be that which is distinctive to the degree, agreeing with that of the edging of the hood. In the 1960s, many American land-grant universities adopted the British and the Scottish tradition of using the official school color(s) for the robes of their doctoral recipients—for instance, Yale: sky blue; Harvard: crimson; University of Pennsylvania: scarlet and blue; Columbia: slate gray; Rutgers: deep red and black.

The colors you will see in the hoods of our faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken:

Apricot: Nursing	Orange: Engineering
Brown: Fine Arts	Pink: Music
Citron: Social Work	Purple: Law
Crimson: Journalism	Sage Green: Physical Education
Dark Blue: Philosophy	Salmon Pink: Public Health
Golden Yellow: Science	Scarlet: Theology
Green: Medicine	Yellow-Brown: Commerce, Business, Accountancy
Lemon-Yellow: Library Science	White: Arts, Letters, Humanities
Light Blue: Education

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees—bachelor's, master's, and doctor's—are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet or the color appropriate for the degree. You will see in our procession many hoods edged with dark blue, representing doctor of philosophy.

Mortarboards are the approved headgear. The tassel, worn on the left side of the cap, may be of gold if the holder has a doctor's degree.

In the procession, first come the faculty members, then the candidates for degrees arranged in the order in which degrees are to be conferred, and finally, the speakers, trustees, administrative officers, candidates for honorary degrees, and other members of the platform party.

Founded in 1933, Monmouth is a private, mid-sized, comprehensive university with a broad commitment to the liberal arts. Monmouth University offers 32 undergraduate and 24 graduate degree programs, including a doctoral program in nursing practice.

Students benefit from a rigorous academic experience, small classes, and professors who meet the highest standards for scholarship and teaching. Our students participate in more than 100 active clubs and organizations, including 16 fraternities and sororities, six media organizations, and a NCAA Division I athletics program fielding 23 teams.

Monmouth's beautiful 159-acre coastal campus, close to New York City and Philadelphia, includes a blend of historic landmarks and state-of-the-art facilities.

HONORARY DEGREE

BOBBI BROWN

Doctor of Public Service, honoris causa

Presented by Trustee Michelle Spicer Toto '94

Bobbi Brown is the founder of Bobbi Brown Cosmetics. Launching her brand in 1991, Brown changed the face of cosmetics with ten brown-based lipstick shades, created to fill a void in the market with simple, flattering and wearable makeup. Her philosophy was simple: Women want to look and feel like themselves, only prettier and more confident. This unique approach was a gift for women who wanted a more natural look, and in 1995 the company was acquired by The Estée Lauder Companies.

The brand is now in more than 73 countries with more than 100 freestanding stores and $1 billion in sales. Renowned makeup artists, celebrities, and style makers use the brand's color cosmetics, fragrances, and skin care products each day.

Brown is a New York Times best-selling author of eight books on beauty. Her ninth book, "Beauty From the Inside Out," offers expert tips and advice on wellness and confidence that will help the reader to be the best version of themselves, from the inside out.

She is a sought-after expert for many national media outlets including Good Morning America, Today, Oprah, Elvis Duran and the Morning Show, and many others.

Having recently left Bobbi Brown Cosmetics, she is now focusing on her next project, Beauty Evolution, a lifestyle and content company.

A dedicated philanthropist, Brown has been heavily involved with Dress for Success, a charity that helps disadvantaged women re-enter the workforce. She has spearheaded the Pretty Powerful campaign, using her product sales to support programs that help women overcome disadvantages and inequality globally. She is on the board of City Meals on Wheels, an organization that delivers meals to homebound elderly New Yorkers, and Reach Out Montclair, a local non-profit located in her hometown of Montclair, N.J. that provides essential needs for underserved children and their families who live in the Montclair community.

Born in Chicago and a graduate of Emerson College, Brown's entrepreneurial impact extends beyond fashion and beauty. She has been inducted into the New Jersey Hall of Fame, received honorary doctorates from Montclair State University, Fashion Institute of Technology and Emerson College, was appointed by President Obama to the Advisory Committee for Trade Policy and Negotiation, and has received the Glamour Woman of the Year Award.

Her message remains the same today as it was when she launched in 1991: "The secret to beauty is simple—be who you are."

DISTINGUISHED TEACHER AWARD

2017 RECIPIENT

James F. Konopack, Ph.D.

Dr. James F. Konopack joined the Monmouth University faculty in 2006, earned tenure and promotion to associate professor in 2012, and was the founding chair of the Department of Health and Physical Education prior to becoming associate dean of the Marjorie K. Unterberg School of Nursing and Health Studies. Dr. Konopack also serves as the university's NCAA Faculty Athletics Representative.

Born and raised in Hunterdon County, Dr. Konopack earned his bachelor's degree in Psychology from the College of Arts & Sciences at Cornell University, his master's degree in Counseling from the School of Education at Boston University, and his doctoral degree in Kinesiology from the College of Applied Health Sciences at the University of Illinois in Urbana-Champaign. His research on physical activity, quality of life, and human aging has been published in such journals as the International Journal of Behavioral Medicine, Medicine & Science in Sports & Exercise, and Health and Quality of Life Outcomes, among others. Dr. Konopack has presented with students and colleagues at national and international conferences and has developed and taught several undergraduate courses at Monmouth University.

Dr. Konopack lives in Howell, NJ with his wife, Sheryl, and their two sons, Trenton and Oliver.

Message to the graduates from James F. Konopack, Ph.D.

I'm honored to share the stage with you today and privileged also to pass along some thoughts as we sit in our ceremonial robes on this auspicious occasion.

You are undoubtedly excited to receive your diplomas and celebrate, but try to savor this day and its significance. You will hear warm greetings, beautiful music, and inspiring words from distinguished speakers. Take it all in, breathe deeply, look around, consider the speakers' wisdom, laugh or cry or both, and enjoy as much as you can about this day before it's over.

As your classmates' names are called and friends and family cheer and take photos, think too of the sacrifices made and hardships endured in order to make this day a reality. We celebrate your personal achievements, but observe that this amphitheater overflows with families who have given of themselves to help you get to this moment. I hope you can feel both pride and humility in this reflection.

Before you finally get to the stage, name card in hand and mortarboard atop your head, look out at your professors seated in the first several rows. For some, smiles will have replaced their normally stoic or contemplative expressions as they share in the pride of your accomplishments. Consider your teachers and others at Monmouth who challenged you to think differently, and be glad for their influence. We hope you'll write and visit, and we certainly hope you do well for yourselves, but what we hope most of all is that you'll take what you've learned and effect some measure of positive change in the world. Are you ready to get started? After all, a "commencement" is just a beginning!

Congratulations to the Monmouth University Class of 2017!
